

European University in Radom

...above all
civil society and creative society

The University, implementing the modern program of the National Qualifications Framework for Higher Education, disseminating good practices of „lifelong learning“ and conducting research related to the fields of study contributes to the creation of a knowledge-based economy in accordance with European standards.

In addition, pursuing its research and teaching activities, it aims to bring up students in accordance with the principles of freedom of teaching and freedom of education in the spirit of respect for human rights, patriotism, democracy, tolerance and responsibility for social and state welfare.

The European University in Radom aims to teach students in accordance with the spirit of uniting Europe. We put a lot of emphasis on internationalization and modern teaching.

Practice is one of the most important teaching components at our university. It is possible thanks to professional staff and a properly adapted curriculum.

The motto of the European University in Radom is:

„...above all civil society and creative society“.

MAIN FIELDS

OF EDUCATION

- ➔ CONSTRUCTION ENGINEER
- ➔ PUBLIC HEALTH (bachelor and master studies)
- ➔ ECONOMY

WHY IS IT WORTH CHOOSING?

HERE ARE THE ANSWERS:

- Staff of outstanding specialists from the best Polish universities
- High quality for a low price
- A diploma respected throughout the EU entitling you to work without visas throughout the EU
- Flexible class schedules adjusted to the needs of the group of listeners
- Possibility to start the MBA (Master of Business Administration) course at the last semester
- Curriculum adapted to the needs of the market
- Two Campuses available: Radom and Warsaw
- Permanent access to the on-line platform
- Classes from culture and history of both Poland and Europe helping in adaptation in Polish and European culture
- Classes in English
- Additional Polish language course

WHAT YOU NEED

TO KNOW ABOUT US?

- We have two Campuses: Radom and Warsaw
- Our classes are run by the best academic staff from all over Poland
- We have numerous foreign contacts within the EU and beyond
- We combine practice with theory
- We run Erasmus + student exchange
- We run our own scientific publishing house, in which students can also publish

WHAT YOU NEED

TO STUDY WITH US?

- Confirmation of acquired education- a photocopy of a passed matriculation examination, or a bachelor's or master's diploma)
- A completed questionnaire
- Student's Visa
- A copy of the passport

OUR CAMPUSES

RADOM

RADOM is a city located 100 km from Warsaw (the capital of Poland) in southern Mazovia. Radom is a poviat city with around 250,000 inhabitants. The history of the city dates back to the ninth century. Radom has always been a fairly important commercial, industrial and political center. For some time he was the „substitute capital of Poland“. Currently, Radom is a growing urban center, and a great base for getting to know Poland. It is located 200 km from Krakow, 100 km from Lublin. Radom has an extensive inter-city communication network. Within the city limits there is a railway station with a wide range of connections, a bus station and an airport. Radom also runs national roads No. 7 (from north to south), and national road No. 12 (east, west) as well as national road No. 9.

WARSAW

WARSAW is the capital of Poland. It is located in the Masovian Province, the largest city in Poland with 1.8 million inhabitants. It is a very well connected and modern city. There are many colleges and headquarters of companies with international reach. The city combines the modernity of European capitals with a historic climate. This connection makes it a great city for living and studying. It is one of the best communicated cities in Poland. As the only city in Poland, it has 2 metro lines. Its central location makes it a great base for getting to know Poland. It also has the largest international airport in Poland on its border.

CHOOSE POLAND

Why Poland? Because it is a modern country in the center of Europe, combining the spirit of Western Europe with the spontaneity and hospitality of the East. Poland is a dynamically developing economy, a member of the European Union and NATO.

What is important, Poland is one of the safer countries in the whole EU. According to statistics of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Great Britain, among others, Poland has the lowest risk of terrorist attacks.

MAIN FIELDS OF EDUCATION

PUBLIC HEALTH →

I and II STAGE

(BACHELOR AND MASTER STUDIES)

The basic goal of the studies in the field of Public Health is the preparation of qualified specialists in the field of public health, who have the necessary competences to undertake various functions in the field of broadly understood public health protection.

MEDICAL

Health Care
Doctor
Hospital
Pharmacist
Nurse
Dentist
First Aid
Surgeon
Emergency

In the e-learning system, 30% of materials are on-line. As part of the studies in the field of Public Health, candidates may choose one of the proposed specialties:

First-cycle studies

(undergraduate)

→ Management in health care

A specialty for people wishing to manage medical facilities and binding their professional career with administrative work in Health Care. This specialty prepares you for difficult and demanding work in the role of managing units such as hospitals and clinics. Trains professional managers in health care.

→ Gastronomy and dietetics

A specialty for people interested in a healthy lifestyle with particular emphasis on dietary indications. It is a specialty combining both theoretical knowledge and practice. Students prepare special dishes adapted to specific diets. A specialty for people who want to work in collective catering establishments, but also in hospitals and nursing homes as a dietician.

→ Wellness

A specialty for people interested in new trends in public health and widely understood spa activities. A person after this specialty will be able to professionally manage, but also supervise complicated cosmetic procedures included in biological regeneration, taking into account significant health variables of the patient.

→ Body fitness and cosmetology

A specialty for people who tie their future with the cosmetics industry and a healthy lifestyle. The person choosing this specialty will be prepared to perform important functions in cosmetic plants, and in the production of cosmetics, becoming an expert in the selection of appropriate cosmetics and exercises to maintain the health of the patient.

→ Food safety management

This specialty is directed to employees of the Sanitary Inspection. The person choosing this specialty will be prepared to act as a food inspector. It can work in every food production plant and in food control and control offices. In a professional way, it is prepared to perform these functions.

→ Paramedic

This specialty is addressed to people who associate their professional work with the emergency medicine segment. It is an extension of the competence of medical rescuers. A person after this specialization will receive knowledge and skills to work as a paramedic. Will be prepared to work in hospitals and emergency teams.

→ Electrocardiology

This specialty is dedicated to people who associate their professional work with work in hospitals and health care units. People finishing this specialty will be prepared to work with complicated electroradiotherapy apparatus.

PUBLIC HEALTH

Second degree (master's) studies

NEW!

Caring and care services

This specialty is a new and very interesting specialty. Aging society combined with the growth of civilization diseases among the population even among the youngest. This specialty is intended for people who tie their careers to work in the care services sector, both as qualified carers and as managers of such centers.

NEW!

Alternative medicine

A specialty addressed to people interested in the increasingly popular and fashionable alternative medicine. It is a combination of conventional medical knowledge with a modern approach to holistic natural medicine.

This specialty is directed to all who bind their future as specialists in natural and alternative medicine.

→ Dietetics and healthy lifestyle

This specialty largely develops knowledge in the field of healthy lifestyle and dietetics. The person who ends this specialty becomes an expert dietitian, combining knowledge about human health and its conditions with professional dietary knowledge.

→ Emergency medicine and crisis management

This specialty develops the knowledge and skills in emergency medicine. It enriches the knowledge of emergency medical services with a complicated process that is crisis management. This specialty prepares the student to work in difficult conditions of rescue operations.

PUBLIC HEALTH

→ Organization and management in health care

This specialty gives competence and knowledge to future health managers in both micro and macro scale. It gives an overview of health issues from the perspective of public health and management sciences.

→ Addiction therapy specialist

This specialization is aimed at people who want to work as an addiction therapist. Biomedical health targeting is combined with a strong socio-medical and psychological aspect. The person terminating this specialty will have the competence to work with addicts.

→ Medical representative

This specialty combines rich medical knowledge with the basics of marketing. After this specialty, the student will be fully prepared to act as a medical representative. Professional medical knowledge combined with knowledge about sales will make the person choosing this specialty the ideal candidate for a sales manager in the pharmaceutical and pharmaceutical industry.

→ Sanitary and epidemiological inspection

This specialty is intended for people interested in working in sanitary inspection and in all health care institutions. Supervising compliance with regulations and procedures is a very important component in this specialty. A rich amount of epidemiological knowledge is the main asset of this specialty.

→ Health tourism

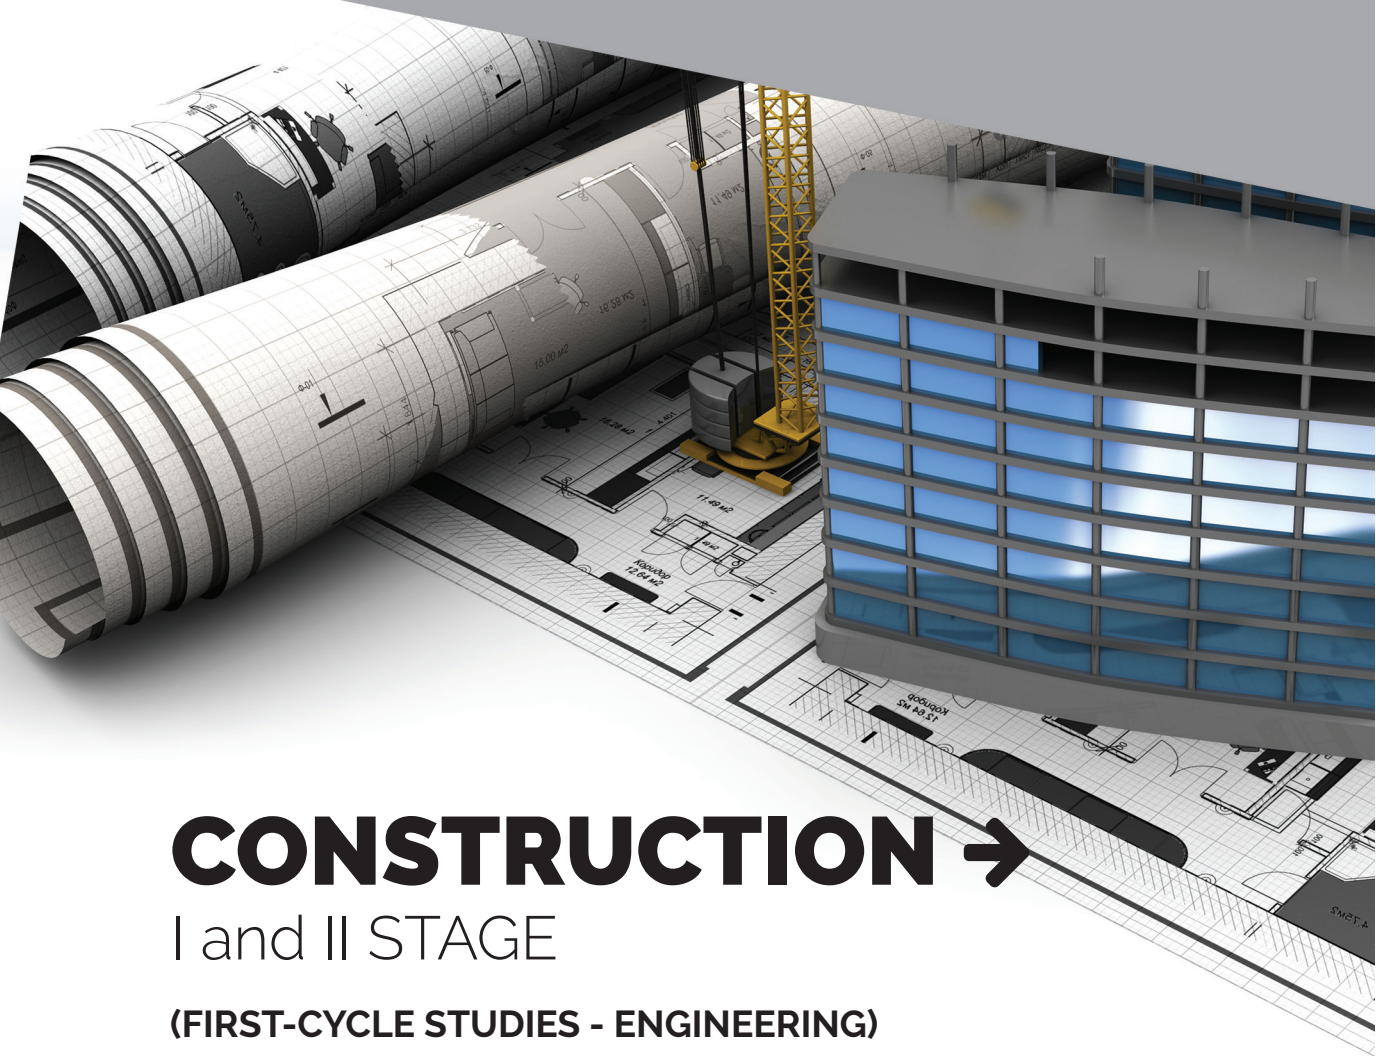

This specialty is intended for people who tie their professional future with the activities of spas and spas. It is a combination of significant knowledge about the health of the population with tourism and spa activities. It is a very fashionable and modern specialty combining knowledge with practice.

→ Health safety

This specialty is the quintessence of Public Health and it is addressed to people who are binding their professional career not only with health care institutions but also with services monitoring the safety of the population.

MAIN FIELDS OF EDUCATION

CONSTRUCTION → I and II STAGE

(FIRST-CYCLE STUDIES - ENGINEERING)

The aim of education in the field of construction is to meet the current and future demand for construction engineers, suitably prepared to practice in various, often changing conditions.

CONSTRUCTION

As part of studies in the field of Civil Engineering, Candidates may choose one of the proposed specializations:

→ General construction

Specialty for people interested in working in the construction industry (contracting, supervision, building materials) in administration units related to construction and architecture, and people intending to undertake their own business in the construction industry.

→ Road construction

A specialty for people interested in working on positions requiring qualifications in the field of road engineering, road or bridge works, voivodship and poviát national road administration.

→ Energy-efficient construction

The specialty enables gaining knowledge and skills in shaping and using environmentally friendly technical solutions in the field of construction and managing the processes of their implementation.

MAIN FIELDS OF EDUCATION

venue (including surplus from the previous years)
VAT-based own resource
GNP/GNI-based own resource
Other payments from/to Member States

ECONOMY →

(SECOND-CYCLE MASTER'S DEGREE STUDIES)

The aim of education in the field of Economics is to educate a professional staff of specialists able to work and manage in local and international financial institutions. These studies combine qualified knowledge with managerial practice.

REVENUES SUPPORTING CORE ACTIVITIES
Following chart provides a breakdown of revenues supporting core activities for the fiscal year ended June

REVENUES SUPPORTING CORE ACTIVITIES
(DOLLARS IN MILLIONS)

STUDENT TUITION

$182
$138

3,326
5,879
426

ECONOMY

As part of studies in Economics, candidates may choose one of the proposed specialties:

→ International relations

This specialization is aimed at people who link their professional career with international business and corporations. The student gets a full package of knowledge about the operation of world economies and their mutual relations becoming an expert who can work in every corner of the world.

→ HR(Human resources) management

Specialization aimed at people who want to hold managerial positions in the cadres of large enterprises. It prepares senior leadership at every level, providing powerful tools in the form of knowledge about economics and human capital management.

→ Global and managerial economics in business

This specialization is directed to people with managerial predispositions at the global level. It provides powerful theoretical and practical tools. It combines both international relations and human resource management. All this in the spirit of the MBA program.

→ Food management and biobusiness

This specialty deals with a specialized business which is biobusiness and food management. A person after this specialty will become an expert on economics in agriculture and food production. Thanks to her, the student becomes a specialist in this growing and future-oriented industry.

CONTACT US

RADOM

Wodna str. 13/21

phone: +48 (48) 344 00 55

+48 (48) 363 86 80

e-mail: oskar@eust.pl

WARSAW

al. Krakowska 110/114

phone: +48 (22) 490 36 55

+48 784 910 547

e-mail: warszawa@eust.pl

...above all
civil society and creative society

European University in Radom